Breaking Free: Student's Life Changing Experience in Prison Ministry

by Carolina Zimbron, Student Publications Writer (Cedarville University – cedarville.edu)

“Taking the gospel to the ends of the earth, a Cedarville University student discovered her calling while sharing God’s love with those who need it the most — individuals incarcerated in an area jail. Marissa Lykins, a junior from Cincinnati, Ohio, found her passion through prison ministry. Her experience from the jail ministry has not only positively impacted the lives of some inmates, but it’s changed Lykins’ passion for life.”
