EAGLES GIVE BACK SIGHTING

We had a great Eagles Give Back Day! From local parks, to churches, food ministry, and camps students stepped out of the classroom and into the community to serve with willing hands and grateful hearts.

This day is more than just service projects—it is an opportunity for our students to embody the words of Jesus from Matthew 5:16: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Whether they were pulling weeds, painting, cleaning, cooking, or lending a helping hand, our Eagles demonstrated Christ-like humility and compassion.

The smiles, teamwork, and joy captured in the photos from the day tell the story best: our students are learning that leadership includes service, and that small acts of kindness can make a lasting impact for eternity.

Thank you to the faculty, staff, parents, and community partners who made this day possible!

If you see a student or alumni serving their church or community, tell us about it! Email a picture to advancement@mcseagles.net and tell us about how one of our eagles is giving back!

We are going to be highlighting our Faculty and Staff in our Eagle Spotlight this year! In honor of National Arts in Education Week, the Eagle Spotlight is our Art Teacher Mrs. Sarah Pate! A fun fact about Mrs. Pate is that her favorite type of artwork she does is film/darkroom photography. We are so grateful to have Mrs. Pate as a part of MCS!

YEARBOOK PICTURES

Do you attend MCS games/events and take pictures with your phone? Do you think they might be great for the yearbook?

Download the Yearbook Snap app, search for 'Middletown Christian School' and enter the code 'eagles'. Submit up to 5 pictures at a time and Mrs. Cummins will review them to make sure they are suitable for yearbook.

While Mrs. Cummins does her best to be at all games and events, she can't be at multiple places at once or get several angles. Thanks for supporting MCS and the yearbook!
